Lewis Sentenced in Owsley Circuit Court

Last Monday in Owsley Circuit Court James B. Lewis, 30, Booneville, KY was sentenced to 2 years for a Probation Violation

(For Felony Offense).

According to witness Kevin Riley, Dept. of Corrections and Parole, Lewis failed to report in Jan. 2011 and had made no contact since Dec 2012.

Judge Tom Jones noted that there was a new conviction in 2014 but this was not part of the sentence

Owsley Elementary Lady Owls Win LBJ's Winter Fest Tournament

Congratulations to the Owsley Elementary Lady Owls for taking 1st place in the LBJ Winter Fest Tournament. The tournament consisted of teams from Menifee, Breathitt, Owsley, and Wolfe Counties. The Lady Owls opened the tournament with a first round victory over LBJ Blue by a score of 36 to 25. In the second round the Lady Owls matched up with Wolfe County Lady Wolves. The girls pulled out to an early lead and never trailed winning by a final score of 32 to 8. In the championship game the Lady Owls faced LBJ Gold from Breathitt County. Once again the girls pulled out to an early lead and never relinquished it going on to win by a final score of 36 to 25.

KY 847 in Owsley County to be closed Saturday, Nov. 22

JACKSON, KY – In order to replace a drainage pipe, the Kentucky Department of Highways plans to close KY 847 in Owsley County on Saturday, Nov. 22. The road will be closed at milepoint 5.5, just north of Scoville. The project will begin around 8 a.m. and will continue until approximately 2 p.m. During this time, the road will be closed to all through traffic.

No marked detour will be posted, but drivers can use KY 30, KY 11 and KY 1938 as an alternate route. Motorists should plan their trips accordingly.

In case of inclement weather, the closure will be postponed until another suitable date.

METH BUST LEADS TO MAN HUNT

Last Monday Sheriff Kelly Shouse and Deputy Sheriff Ivan Fletcher was on highway 30 when they observed smoke coming from the back of a trailer.

After stopping and getting out, they smelled one of the strong odors consistent with the smell of a meth lab.

The inhabitant of the trailer, Clayton Jump, 35, Booneville, KY escaped from the sheriff's office before they could arrest him. This lead to a two day search for him.

Late on Tuesday afternoon, Jump was spotted on Allen Road in an abandoned building. Allen's Ambulance was called to the scene because Jump had barcaded himself inside the building.

When the Owsley

County Sheriff's Office Officials tried to coax him to surrender he became upset and began cutting himself on the arms and around the neck.

Owsley Sheriff's Office finally managed to get the lock open and get Jump out, where Allen's Ambulance Service assessed the defendant.

Jump was airlifted to UK where he underwent stitches and was sent back to Three Forks Regional Jail to prepare for his arraignment.

Manchester Memorial Hospital Recognized for Outstanding Record in Patient Safety – Awarded an "A" in Fall 2014 Hospital Safety Score

Manchester, KY: Manchester Memorial Hospital (MMH) was honored with an "A" grade in the Fall 2014 Hospital Safety Score, which rates how well hospitals protect patients from errors, injuries and infections. The Hospital Safety Score is compiled under the guidance of the nation's leading experts on patient safety and is administered by The Leapfrog Group (Leapfrog), an independent industry watchdog. The first and only hospital safety rating to be peer-reviewed in the Journal of Patient Safety, the Score is free to the public and designed to give consumers information they can use to protect themselves and their families when facing a hospital stay.

"Being awarded an "A" for our Hospital Safety Score from a national organization such as The Leapfrog Group is significant and demonstrates Manchester Memorial's ongoing commitment and dedication to keeping patients safe from infections, injuries and medical and medication errors," said Stephen O'Neal, Vice President of Clinical Services/CCO. "Our staff work diligently to place patient safety first and it is an honor to be recognized at the national level for this distinction."

"Patient safety needs to be a 24-7 priority for hospitals, as errors and infections are all too common and often deadly," said Leah Binder, president and CEO of The Leapfrog Group, which administers the Hospital Safety Score. "We commend the 'A' hospitals, including Manchester Memorial Hospital for helping us to raise the standards of health care nationwide, and demonstrating that they've made the well-being of patients a top priority."

Developed under the guidance of Leapfrog's

2014 LADIES NIGHT OUT

On Thursday, November 6th, the Owsley Cancer Awareness Coalition's Annual Ladies Night Out was held at the Owsley County Extension Service. This year's health focus was on colon cancer.

Every year, almost 2,500 Kentuckian men and women are diagnosed with colon cancer and nearly 900 die from it. Colon Cancer is the second leading cause of cancer death for men and women in our state, second only to lung cancer. Most of the cancers of the colon occur in people age 50 and older.

Colon cancer often has no symptoms at first. So it is important to begin screenings at age 50, even when you feel fine. When color cancer is more advanced, common symptoms may include:

Kentuckians Show Heart:

1.5 Million Kentuckians Registered as Organ & Tissue Donors

Margaret Mead famously said, “never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed, citizens can change the world; indeed, it’s the only thing that ever has.”

The Circuit Court Clerks of Kentucky are a committed group of public servants who have a profound impact on the lives of those who need an organ transplant- patients like Kourtney. “I’m here in the hospital and listed status 1A. It’s hard for me to read or really even think. I am having trouble breathing and my kidneys are losing function,” explains 30 year old Kourtney Wanner. Kourtney has been waiting on her heart transplant for years and is getting to a point where the wait must end. “I know I’ll get my transplant. I am staying hopeful and trying to enjoy the little things with my husband and family”, says Wanner.

“Today over 1000 Kentuckians are waiting for their life saving transplant. Their families wait too. Their parents, siblings, cousins, and friends are all waiting. Now these families know that 1.5 million Kentuckians stand behind them and are willing to save their life” explains Mike Mays Owsley Co. Circuit Court Clerk.

The Circuit Clerks and their driver’s license staff make a significant impact by asking two important questions while residents obtain a license or ID. “ We ask everyone if they would like to donate $1 for public education about the mission of donation and if they wish to be a registered organ donor” explains Mays.

This month Kentucky reached a milestone in the fight to end the wait and save lives like Kourtney’s. Over 1.5 million Kentuckians have joined the Kentucky Organ Donor Registry. “Joining the Registry is very important. 1.5 million Kentuckians have now said, “If I can save a life after I’m gone, I’m willing to do it”. What a legacy! To save someone like Kourtney to save a family from loss, it means everything!” explains Shelley Snyder, Executive Director of the Circuit Clerk’s Trust For Life Program. “This Milestone is possible, in large part, thanks to the Circuit Clerks and their staff. Without their 2 questions, we may not have 50,000 names on the Kentucky Organ Donor Registry. Because of their efforts over 1.5 million Kentuckians have registered. The impact of the Circuit Clerk is remarkable.”

Over 123,000 patients are currently waiting for their organ transplant nationwide. Tragically each day, 18 people die waiting. Every registered organ donor is a symbol of hope for patients in need. Today 3610 Adair Co. residents are registered donors. All Kentucky residents are eligible to join the registry at their Circuit Clerk’s office or online at donatelifeky.org. Regardless of age or medical history, everyone can join the registry. If you have questions about donation, contact the Trust at 1-866-945-5433 or ssnyder@trustforlife.org.

BIBLE

If you decided to read this column because of the title expecting a chapter and verse relating to our nation's recent Election Day; you won't find it. What you will find here is what the Bible says about the future, America's role in it and where our current political situation will take us, along with a few of my opinions.

The Bible speaks of a future world leader, commonly known as the Antichrist. If he is the leader of the world, that would include the United States as well. The Bible does speak of other "kings" and leaders during the time of the Antichrist so it appears that there will be a one world system with national borders, but those leaders and borders will be little more than symbolic beneath the power of the Antichrist.

A worldwide economic system will be established by the Antichrist (Revelation 13:16-18). This system obviously will involve computers and electronics. A "mark" will be placed "in" a person's right hand or forehead, without which a person cannot buy or sell anything.

As stingy as people and nations are about money, it is only reasonable to believe this is the fix to some sort of economic disaster. The world's nations and the people of the world must be willing to hand over control of their finances to this fellow. There must be an economic catastrophe of immense proportions in order for this to happen.

The collapse is coming. Here in the United States if you divide the national debt (17.9 Trillion according to <http://www.usdebtclock.org/>) by the number of people (319 million according to <http://www.census.gov/popclock/>) each man, woman and child owe $56,112 to pay off the federal government's debt.

Think of it this way, if the federal government never spent another dime and the interest on the debt ceased and a million dollars a day were used to pay off the debt it would take 17 million 900 thousand days to pay it off. That is 49,041 years.

Regardless of which party holds a majority in congress or the White House we know the spending will not stop and the interest will continue to grow. People talk about leaving debt for our children and grandchildren – 49,041 years, we are long past children and grandchildren.

The collapse is coming and the Antichrist will be able to establish his one world economic system. People will be looking for answers to all the problems and he will appear to have them.

Before the Antichrist is able to usher in his economic policies upon the world, he rises from oblivion with his diplomatic prowess by establishing a "covenant with many" for seven years. A seven year treaty that promises safety to Israel, along with peaceful promises to the rest of the world and in particular the Middle East; this will probably occur as a result of the battle of Psalm 83.

The nationality of the Antichrist has been a subject of debate for a long time, but it is generally believed he will be from within the borders of the old Roman Empire. That being said, he is not from the United States.

Since WWII America has been the main negotiator throughout the world. It has been the USA the world has turned to, to solve its problems. Either on the battlefield or at the tables of diplomacy, the USA has set the tone. However, in the last few decades the respect of the United States has fallen to the point that nations are looking more and more to Russia and Europe in the handling of peace treaties. America is rapidly losing its influence in the world. Biblically, this is how it must be, for the Antichrist to rise to power. He will fill the void left by the absence of a world superpower.

How far away are we from the rise of the Antichrist, the one world economic system and all the horrible things ahead during the time the Bible calls, "the time of Jacob's trouble?" Could it be a century away, or only ten years, or even sooner? No one really knows, but America's economic woes and political situation indicate the times will be coming sooner than later.

EASTSIDE APARTMENT
NEWS

BY RUBY CALLAHAN

Hello from Eastside! We sure are having some early winter with rain, sleet, and cold temps. Please pray for everyone who has to work out in this weather.

Our prayers go out to the family of Charles Bowling family and all who have lost loved ones. Susie Barrett's husband has been in the hospital. Please pray that he will be okay and for safe travel for her as she takes him and other family members to the doctor.

I want to say a special thank you to all our Veterans who have served to make us have a wonderful place to live. I had a brother, Charles Begley who was in Vietnam and his son, Darrell was in the Gulf War.

Bible Verse: "O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good; because his mercy endureth forever." (Psalms 118:1)

RECIPE: Cranberry Sauce

12 ounces cranberries
1 cup white sugar
1 cup orange juice

In medium size

saucepan over medium heat, dissolve sugar in the orange juice. Stir in the cranberries and cook until cranberries start to pop (about 10 mins.) Remove from heat and place sauce in bowl. Cranberry sauce will thicken as it cools.

SPORTS

Boys Middle School Basketball

The boys' basketball teams at the grade school and middle school have been busy playing games again. The 5/6 grade team was runner-up in the Dorian Hostetler Tournament. They also won the team free throw percentage award for the tournament. The next week the young owls went on to defeat East Perry Grade School in the semi-finals of the Jackson City Invitational 47-33 but later lost to Morgan County in the championship game.

The 7/8 grade boys have been busy, as well defeating rival Lee County at home by 20 points and later the next week by 54-11. Although, the Owls won at Buckhorn earlier this month, the Wildcats played a superb game and defeated the Owls earlier this week at home. However, these owls are holding steady with a 5-5 record and the 5/6 grade Owls have completed a 12-4 record. Both teams are having solid seasons so come out and support your young Owls.

FFA Fall Festival

Students arrived early to press the juice from the sugar cane grown on the OCHS school farm.

It is steamy business as many participants came by to see Mr. Taylor cooking off the green foam to make sorghum.

Fall is in the air! On Saturday October 18, 2014 the sweet smell of sorghum could have been smelled for miles. Some of the students from OCHS helped make some sorghum for the FFA Fall Festival. There were also many activities going on that day like wagon rides, face painting, picking a pumpkin from the patch, and other fun festival games. Also the OCHS boys basketball team had a chili cook-off. A special thank you to Alan Taylor for making the sorghum.

MORE THAN YOU EVER WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT THANSGIVING

The First Thanksgiving:

The First Thanksgiving Day was celebrated in 1621 at Plymouth, Massachusetts by the Plymouth Pilgrims and the Wampanoag Indians. The Pilgrims had sailed across the Atlantic Ocean to reach North America on the ship named 'Mayflower'.

The Pilgrim leader, Governor William Bradford organized the first Thanksgiving feast. He invited the neighboring Wampanoag Indians to the feast to show appreciation and thanks for teaching the Pilgrims how to cultivate the land. The first Thanksgiving celebration lasted three days. Must have been quite a party!

Interestingly enough, the traditional Thanksgiving foods mashed potatoes, pumpkin pies, popcorn, milk, corn on the cob, and cranberries were not foods present on the first Thanksgiving's feast table.

The foods thought to have made up the first Thanksgiving feast include lobster, rabbit, chicken, fish, squashes, beans, chestnuts, hickory nuts, onions, leeks, dried fruits, maple syrup and honey, radishes, cabbage, carrots, eggs, and goat cheese. As for table etiquette, the pilgrims didn't use forks; they ate with spoons, knives, and their fingers. Just like me.

Thanksgiving Throughout The Years:

Abraham Lincoln issued a 'Thanksgiving Proclamation' on the 3rd of October 1863 and officially set aside the last Thursday of November as the national day for Thanksgiving.

Congress passed a law on December 26, 1941, ensuring that all Americans would celebrate a unified Thanksgiving on the fourth Thursday of November every year as a way to spur economic growth and extend the Christmas shopping season.

Sarah Josepha Hale, an American magazine editor, persuaded Abraham Lincoln to declare Thanksgiving a national holiday. She is also the author of the popular nursery rhyme "Mary Had a Little Lamb".

Benjamin Franklin wanted the turkey to be the national bird of the United States.

The annual Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade tradition began in the 1920's.

Since 1947, the National Turkey Federation has presented a live turkey and two dressed turkeys to the President. The President does not eat the live turkey. He "pardons" it and allows it to live out its days on a historical farm.

Thanksgiving Today:

In the US, about 280 million turkeys are sold for the Thanksgiving celebrations. Each year, on average, each American eats between 16 - 18 pounds of turkey. Californians eat more turkey than any other state in the United States.

Although Thanksgiving is widely considered an American holiday, it is also celebrated on the second Monday in October in Canada.

Black Friday is the Friday after Thanksgiving in the United States, where it is the beginning of the traditional Christmas shopping season.

Did You Know Turkey Facts?

- The average weight of a turkey purchased at Thanksgiving is 15 pounds.
- The heaviest turkey ever raised was 86 pounds, about the size of a large dog.
- A 15 pound turkey usually has about 70 percent white meat and 30 percent dark meat.
- Turkey has more protein than chicken or beef.
- Turkeys will have 3,500 feathers at maturity.
- Male turkeys gobble.
- Hens do not. They make a clucking noise.
- Commercially raised turkeys cannot fly.
- Turkeys have heart attacks. The United States Air Force was doing test runs and breaking the sound barrier. Nearby turkeys dropped dead with heart attacks.
- A large group of turkeys is called a flock.
- Turkeys have poor night vision.
- It takes 75-80 pounds of feed to raise a 30 pound tom turkey.
- A 16-week-old turkey is called a fryer. A five to seven month old turkey is called a young roaster.

Outdoor Truths by Gary Miller

I've always considered myself a prepared hunter – some would say over prepared. I very rarely go into the woods without my backpack. During the colder months this is especially true. Since I'm never absolutely sure as to what the weather will bring, I take just about everything. My backpack is over three-thousand cubic inches. I strategically place additional clothes in it or strapped to it. I carry additional socks, gloves, headgear, and even an extra base-layer shirt just in case I sweat too much while getting to the stand. The nooks and crannies are stuffed full of other things like snacks, a drink, my reading glasses, a book, paper, pen, and my Iphone. And there's also my umbrella and rain gear. In addition to all of this, I carry a fanny pack as well; full of calls, scents, rope, compass, trimmers, and anything else that suits my fancy. Now some of you are already laughing at my "overkill." You're not the first. I've never weighed my gear but I figure that it really doesn't matter because the burden of the load is a small price to pay in order to be a more prepared and even satisfied, hunter. Sometimes the weight is cumbersome. Walking the hills most assuredly puts a toll on my legs, but as the season progresses it eventually becomes almost unnoticeable.

Some of you, right now, are carrying a load of a different kind. It's a burden that weighs on your heart and mind. It may be one that you have caused or that you had nothing to do with. These burdens come through all sorts of circumstances from sickness, the concern over a child, the loss of a job, divorce, or a host of other things. Your mind is questioning the purpose of such a burden and the devil is quick to answer your question by casting the guilt squarely in your lap and telling you, "If you had only (fill in the blank) this would have never happened. And now God will abandon you to suffer the consequences alone." The Bible is clear about the devil and his ways. It says that he is the father of lies and his purpose is to destroy your faith by causing you to doubt and disbelieve the Word of God. The truth of the scriptures assures us of several things. They tell us that we are loved by God, that He will never leave us, and that He has promised to bring good to our lives even in the midst of our burdens. He has also promised to us peace. Having peace many times, doesn't come from the burden being taken away but by changing our mind concerning it. My backpack was not a burden because I knew in my mind it would make me better prepared. The weight was the same but my mind counted it worthwhile. What you may need right now is not your burden removed but only to see it from the perspective of God. It is not bigger than Him. In fact it is simply a tool in His hands to prepare you for what He is making you to be. Ask God to give you peace in your trial. The Bible says He will give it in such a way, that it will surprise even you.

OBITUARIES

CHARLES BOWLING

Charles “Charlie” Bowling, age 70, husband of Barbara (Ross) Bowling, departed this life on Monday, November 10, 2014, from injuries sustained in a farming accident.

Charlie was born on October 2, 1944, in Hyden, Leslie County, KY to the late Justus Tucker Sr. and Katie (Deaton) Bowling. He had worked in the oil fields, coal mines and on the family farm. Charlie enjoyed playing rook, golf outings with his son, Anthony, going “back home” to Bowlingtown, UK basketball, Cincinnati Reds baseball and the nightly broadcast of Fox and Friends news. He was a member of the Warrens Chapel Church located in the Vincent community of Owsley County, and a Kentucky Colonel. Charlie loved the Lord his church family, and wanted to see all of his family in church on Sunday mornings.

Thank You

We would like to thank Booneville Funeral Home for their service to my family with our son Joshua Glen Smith aka. “Kamala” with the arrangements. Everything looked great and the service went well. A big thank you to Cassie Morgan, Linda and Mark Edwards, Paul and Sharon, and Harvey and Don Hamilton for all your hard work. We are so grateful and we appreciate Joe and Robin Himes for doing the funeral service and the beautiful songs. Also, thanks to Sheila Dooley for a special request that was sung so beautifully. A big thank you to the pallbearers who laid Josh to rest. Thank you to all that sent flowers, food, etc. and to those that called or came to our house in our time of need. Thank you for helping us and keeping us in your thoughts and prayers. Your support and kindness at this difficult time will always be remembered.

Love,

The Smith Family.

Simple
Man

by Margaret Faye Hensley

Column 105

THE TREES IN THE MOUNTAINS were starting to show signs of fall approaching. Leaves were slowly drifting to the ground and the grass was drying up. Jake was due to cut the grass today yet the grass had not grown much taller since he had cut it the week before. Most men her father’s age were sick or lying in a nursing home bed. Clarence was still a very active and relatively healthy man with the exception of his memory loss. He had asked her yesterday where his car was because it wasn’t outside in the driveway. He had not had a car in twenty years. Liza told him her friend had borrowed it for the day and he said that was fine with him. When Liza first noticed his confused comments she was quite alarmed, but now she had gotten used to his condition. She knew she could not change his advancing age and had decided to accept him as he was and enjoy these precious times together. She caught herself standing at the window watching her daddy walk around the yard as he looked at his trees. She wanted to etch that memory into her mind so she could remember him as he was at his mountain home. Clarence had shown her where his important papers were in a large leather case that he kept in his gun safe. She had known the combination of the lock for many years. He had a habit of keeping a large amount of cash in a leather zippered bag. Liza Jane had learned from her father, to be prepared for a rainy day fund, just in case a tire blew out or some other emergency arose. From the first paycheck she earned, Liza had put some cash in a mason jar in her kitchen cabinet. She liked looking at the jar full of money; it made her feel successful and secure to know that she was never broke as long as she could see the jar full of money. Liza hardly ever had to dip into that jar, and had often counted the money for fun. One time she had collected only twenty dollar bills. She had enough money to purchase four new tires that she had needed. When Clarence had shown her his important papers, he had grinned and asked her to count the money bag, as he called it. She noticed right away that the money bag was bulging. He watched her as she counted out the hundred dollar bills one by one. She looked up at him several times and grinned. He was proud of himself she could tell. When she was finished counting, she was amazed that her father had ten thousand dollars in his rainy day fund. Before she could say anything, he elbowed her and said, “Liza dear, you never know when you need to buy a loaf of bread!” She patted him on the back and told him bread must be very expensive here in the mountains!
